Hawks Dump Raiders, 21-6

Appomattox County, displaying sloppy execution on offense and a lackluster defense fell to the fired up Gretna Hawks, 21-6 in a Seminole District football game Friday night.

Quarterback Mike Luck tossed touchdown passes of 59 and 15 yards and defensive end Roger Ward intercepted an errant Mac Weaver pass, returning the ball 50 yards for the final Gretna six pointer.

Weaver, who connected on just six of 18 passes for the game, got the Raiders into the scoring column late in the third quarter when he hit Dicky Kelso with a 49 yard bomb on a first down situation.

Neither team could muster a score in the first period as the Raiders longest gain on three series of downs was a five yard penalty against Gretna. The Hawks moved the ball well during their two series but an intercepted pass killed one drive at the Raiders 35 and Ricky Burge deflected a third down pass by Luck to force a punting situation at the Gretna 40 on the next series.

Following a Mitch Eggleston punt after the first series of downs in second quarter, Gretna took over at their own 29 yard line and moved 71 yards in five plays for the first score of the game.

Running back Errott James picked up 13 yards in three carries then Luck dropped back, found Elton Whittle racing down the right side line and fired a pass to the junior end.

The ball was almost picked off by Tony Snell, but Snell fell in a desperation attempt for the interception and Whittle went untouched to the goal line.

After an exchange of punts in the half, Luck passed to running back Stuart Moon for 28 yards to give the Hawks a first down at the Raiders' 17. After a two yard gain by Moon and an incomplete pass, Luck passed 15 yards to Robin Swanson and the second touchdown of the quarter. Luck passed to Swanson for the points after and Gretna took a 14-0 lead to the locker room.

Only in the third quarter did Appomattox show any signs of being the same team that had shut out Staunton River a week before. The defense, led by Alvin Goff and Flip Jamerson stiffened and although Weaver was ineffective for the most part, he did manage the pass to Kelso who took the ball in stride and moved into the end zone.

Weaver was furnished poor pass protection most of the second half and was throwing on the run or just when he was being hit. The result was two interceptions, one of which Ward picked off in the flat and rambled for the final touchdown of the game.

Aided by a penalty following a completed pass, Appomattox moved the Gretna 14 yard line late in the game, but James picked off pass at the nine yard line to kill the Raiders' threat.

This week the Raiders travel to Amherst to battle the Lancers, now 4-1 on the season after squaking by William Campbell, 7-6 Friday night.

Raiderettes Volleyball Team Stays Undefeated

Raiders Baby Win Third

The junior varsity football team at Appomattox County High School won its third game without a loss as the Baby Raiders defeated Gretna, 22-14 last Thursday at Gretna.

Tommy Goode caught scoring passes of 60 and 40 yards from quarterback Andy Wingfield and Ronnie Preston scored the other touchdown on a six yard dive.

Preston's touchdown was set up by a 40 yard pass from Wingfield to Goode. Wingfield hit on six of nine passes for the game. Preston and John Rothgeb each rushed for 40 yards to lead the Appomattox ground game.

The Baby Raiders will host the Amherst County JV's Thursday as they attempt to stretch their unbeaten string to 13, including eight wins and one tie last season against no losses.
